Keynote speakers were Glyn Humphreys (Birmingham), Roberta Klatzky (Carnegie-Mellon), and Margaret Jean Intons-Peterson (Indiana).

A selection of the papers presented at the workshop was published as a special issue of the German journal Psychologische Beiträge (1996).

In 1994, the main organizers of the first five EWICs obtained a three-year grant from the European Program "Human Capital and Mobility". This photo shows the members of the consortium, along with Charlotte Sumida, CNRS officer in charge of European scientific collaboration.
