2014

Marios Avraamides, of the University of Cyprus, was host of EWIC's fourteenth edition.

This was the second time EWIC had been organized on an island!

The meeting was held in the coastal city of Paphos, a location that plunges the visitor directly into the archeological past of Cyprus.

Participants enjoyed the inspiring environment of a five-star beach hotel, with a stunning outlook onto the Mediterranean sea.

The invited speakers were Beatrice De Gelder (Maastricht) and Bob Logie (Edinburgh).
